Reflections From Tim

THE DAY CHRIST CAME (AGAIN)

Are You Ready?

Part 6

He burst in the front door and began running from room to room. He shouted, "Marge!...Julie!...Marge!...Julie!" There was Julie's favorite rag doll on the floor. Marge's housecoat was still lying on the chair beside the bed. There was evidence of Marge's housework everywhere. He ran into the kitchen. There were the dishes half done in the sink. He felt the dishwater it was still warm. It was almost as if... almost as if... Suddenly he knew. Then he thought... "They were prepared."

He raced back out into the front yard and looked up, but now all was darkness. He was alone. Never had he felt so alone. Alone in his sin.

Suddenly the earth shuddered, as an old machine that had served its purpose, an old machine running down. He looked again and the Sun seemed to be running down too. Now he could stare at it without squinting or blinking. It became dimmer and dimmer. There was a chill in the air. The stars and the planets became visible at midday, (at least he thought it was midday). Nothing was motionless. They were darting her and there all over the sky. Everything was going crazy; the universe was literally falling to pieces.

Rev 6:12-17; I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood. 13 And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. 14 Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. 15 And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, 16 and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! 17 For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"
