THINK ON THIS

Pause & Consider

The trouble with doing nothing is that you can't stop and rest.

If you marry a child of the devil, you are bound to have trouble with your father-in-law.

It is not necessary to blow out the other person's light in order to let you own shine.

God often digs wells of joy with spades of sorrow.

He who talks to you about others,
will talk to others about you.

Reflections From Tim

Seeing Life Through God's Perspective Changes Everything

Prov. 15:8; The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, But the prayer of the upright is His delight.

Prov. 15:29; The LORD is far from the wicked, But He hears the prayer of the righteous.

One of the greatest privileges and most humbling experiences we have as Christians is the privilege of prayer, and with that the one thing we can know and be sure of as Christians is that God hears our prayers.

Nevertheless, there are so many who have yet to realize and experience just how wonderful this privilege is for us.

Through prayer, we discover things about ourselves that we could not discover any other way. Prayer provides a mirror to our soul. Through prayer, our motives and attitudes are brought to the light. Through prayer, we can explore the source of our less-than-becoming behavior.

Along the way, we discover unsuspected roots of unforgiveness, agreement with things that simply are not true, and places of woundedness that otherwise go unnoticed, and worse, unhealed.

Through prayer, we discover the shadows of our sin and recognize the luminescence of God's redemption and restoration. During prayer, our eyes shift from self-focus to God-awareness, and we find ourselves with a heavenly perspective that is not our own. Looking at life through God's perspective changes everything.
